PERSONAL MISSION STATEMENT

My relationship with Jesus Christ has ignited a passion in me for reaching and teaching people. This passion is fulfilled as I reach out to men, women, students, and children who do not know Christ and offer them the message of the Gospel. After salvation, my desire is to teach them through intense personal discipleship and Bible study. I also feel deeply called to placing followers of Christ into positions of active ministry. Whether in homes, businesses, schools, in the community or around the world, individual spiritual gifts will be identified and utilized to the fullest.

Two things that I desire to bring to any ministry are my strong commitments to the teaching, preaching, and application of Scripture to the lives of the congregation and the training of people to be effective ministers in their world. If these two goals are achieved, Christ's church will grow both in number and in spiritual depth.
